
TPS uses the arithmetic mean of native epochs (zero-transaction epochs retained); aggregation TPS extends native windows by logical payment count. Single run per configuration.